

Can you find all of these? Don't forget to log your answers in kimyo when you get home to see if you can get a badge! Check back soon to see what new things have been added!

Knuckle Bone Pavement

Historic 1600s flooring made of animal bones, found in Oxford's Park End Street.

Gallery 2

Found it!

☐

Spikes from the Cutteslowe Walls

A spiky metal barrier from walls that divided an Oxford neighbourhood.

In Gallery 1, remember to look up!

Found it!

☐

St. Frideswide's Grave Slab

Ancient grave slab, possibly marking the resting place of St. Frideswide, Oxford's patron saint.

In Gallery 1

Which Saxon King chased St. Frideswide?

Answer:

Found it!

☐

Civil War Gorget

A rare piece of Civil War armour found in the River Thames, once worn by soldiers in battle!
In Gallery 2, a part of the Civil War display.

Found it!

☐

Penicillin culture vessel

A culture vessel used to grow penicillin, the life-saving medicine discovered in Oxford!
In Gallery 2

Found it!

☐